At Rocky Hill Congregational Church, we condemn racism in all its blatant and insidious forms. In light of recent events in our country, and in order to address hurtful and destructive behaviors and attitudes within our own body, we resolve now to embark on a journey to examine the sin of racism in ourselves, in our church and community, and across our country.

We commit to equipping ourselves to fight racism by:

- Acknowledging white privilege
- Confronting white fragility
- Learning how to be true allies.

We pledge not only to learn, but to work to change the laws, methods and attitudes that have been used, and are still being used, to suppress the freedoms, opportunities and health of our siblings of color.

To be the church we want to be, we must turn our love for all God's people into actions that will create meaningful change. We invite others in our community and surrounding communities to join with us in working to end the scourge of racism.
