

Collect 25 items (jelly beans, cheerios, m&m, coins, etc) and place them in a container. Remove an item from your container if you answer NO to any of the following questions.

1. I have choices of many hair products and they are on an open shelf and not locked in a case.
2. I feel comfortable in stores at the mall and never notice anyone following me.
3. In general I feel good about the police and I am not afraid if I am stopped for a minor traffic violation.
4. My holidays are celebrated at school and work.
5. If I ask to speak to a person in charge, that person is almost always my race.
6. The heroes in movies look like me.
7. It is easy for me to be surrounded by a majority of people of my own race.
8. When I go to a museum, I see many examples of people from my race represented in the art.
9. The salons in my town know how to cut and style my hair.
10. When I get into a good college people credit my hard work and don't comment about affirmative action
11. If my child is bullied, I can be sure that her teacher will take it seriously.
12. When I speak to a customer service representative about a billing problem, I always use my natural voice.
13. If I walk in my neighborhood, my neighbors would never call the police on me.

14. I don't worry the police will stop my son while riding his bike in my town.
15. If I apply for a loan, I am sure that my race doesn't influence the person reviewing my application.
16. The streets in my country are not named for men who killed or enslaved my ancestors.
17. Stories about my history are part of the core curriculum in school and not an elective.
18. If I google "beautiful women" the majority of the images are of women of my race.
19. If I dress in sweats and a hoodie, women don't clutch their purses when I walk by them.
20. I use my full name on my resume.
21. My family has inherited money or property.
22. People do not interpret my personal opinions as representative of my whole race.
23. My doctor always takes my concerns seriously when I describe my symptoms or my pain.
24. I have been offered a job because of my association with a friend of my family.
25. The media, movies, tv shows almost always represent my race in a positive manner.